Collection of Information

To assist us to provide you with services, we need to collect personal and credit information about you. We may disclose this information to other parties (who may be located overseas), including third party providers, and to external agencies as described in our privacy policy, and may also use your personal information for direct marketing purposes. Our privacy policy explains what information we collect and why we collect it, how we use that information, who we work with, and the countries (currently the USA, Japan, Philippines and New Zealand) where those recipients may be located. This policy also explains your rights to access and correct any information we store about you, how to make a privacy complaint and how to opt out of receiving direct marketing. Our privacy policy is available at synergy.net.au/privacy_policy or by calling us on 13 13 53 for residential customers or 13 13 54 for business customers.

We may also disclose your credit information to credit reporting bodies (CRBs) such as information about overdue payments. Our privacy policy also includes important information about credit reporting such as the details about the CRBs to whom we may disclose your credit information, the information that CRBs hold, and how you can request CRBs not to use or disclose your information for pre-screening or when you consider yourself to be victim of fraud. You can request a copy of a statement setting out the important credit reporting information by contacting us.
